

Couscous und Bulgur "made in Germany"

Vegetarian, vegan and healthy nutrition are in focus of consumers, the market for vegetarian food is growing by 9% per year according to market research data and ethnofood has long been an integral part of our kitchen.

We have implemented the requirements of our customers for high quality and safety of the products, permanent availability of goods, freshly produced and in combination with short delivery routes.

We are currently building a production facility for Couscous and Bulgur "made in Germany". Production will start in spring 2021

Why Couscous and Bulgur "Made in Germany"

Many years of expertise in grinding durum wheat (the raw material for couscous and bulgur) in Mannheim made this decision easy for us. If both products are imported from abroad at great expense, we have direct access to the raw material durum wheat and the production capacities here, on site.

In addition to maximum product safety, permanent availability of goods and short delivery routes, there are many other benefits ...

... more about BENEFITS in the next information mail in January 2021 (this info service ends with the third and last information mail in March with the completion of production).

GoodMills Deutschland GmbH, a strong and reliable partner

As a part of the GoodMills Group, we grind up to 2.9 million tons of grain annually at 6 locations in Germany and a total of 25 locations in Europe into flour, semolina and special products. We have over 100 years of experience in processing grain and supply over 200 million satisfied consumer with our products every day.

We are right on schedule with the construction, the storage and bagging hall are finished, the last walls are being put in place and the roof of the Bulgur & Couscous plant is being closed so that the interior work and the assembly of the production lines can start promptly.

Some impressions of the construction phase and the mill

We will keep you up to date on the construction progress in our next information mail (from a total of three) in January 2021.

We are at your disposal for questions and suggestions.
